Week 12: Go Serve

Thought
Jesus set the example of leading a servant life in Mark 10:45: For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many. Jesus changed the world by intentionally serving a few men. You can also change your world by modeling Jesus’ example and mentoring other men.

- Mentoring is easy...it can be done anytime, and anywhere. Jesus simply walked through life with a few men, and demonstrated what relationship with the Father looked like.
  Mark 16:15 (NCV) Jesus said to his followers, “Go everywhere in the world, and tell the good news.”
- Mentoring is relational...it can be centered around your existing relationships, your passions and your profession.
  1 Peter 4:10-11 (NLT) God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve on another.
- Mentoring is effective...life change happens in the context of relationships!!
  Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 (NIV) Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work: If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up! Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Discussion
It’s time now for every man in this group to step up to the plate and commit to leading their own Man-to-Man group next semester. Share with the group the names of those three or four men that you want to lead. Discuss any thoughts you may have about leading a group.

Next Step
This week, go ahead and contact those three or four men you selected. Tell them what this group has done for you and how you would like to share your experience with them next semester.
