

If you're looking to lead a curriculum based Small Group, we have plenty to choose from. Here's a list of highly recommended and diverse curriculum and book studies to choose from. If you have any questions, be sure to reach out to the Small Groups Team at your campus.

Highlands' Curriculum

Freedom

Freedom Groups are a Bible study and conference experience designed to help believers discover the abundant life that Jesus desires for them.

Freedom books available through campus Small Groups Team during launch of spring and fall semesters

Fresh Start

Video teaching series with discussion designed to give everyone space to talk about who God is and what a relationship with Jesus means. Perfect for those new to the Christian faith and those needing a fresh start in their relationship with Jesus.

Day 22

Dig deep into the encouraging messages delivered during our seasonal 21 Days of Prayer. Whether you have never participated in 21 Days of Prayer, are still learning how to pray, or are a prayer warrior, this group will expand your prayer life through powerful prayer, worship, encouraging messages, and great discussion.

Parenting on Purpose

In this video curriculum, discover how to combine Biblical principles with practical discussions to reflect love, wisdom, and grace in parenting.

Video downloads available once your Small Group is registered and approved

Sunday Message Discussion Guide

Lead your group through a guided discussion of Sunday's message. Discussion guide notes are available for download by 4 pm on Mondays.

PDF download available under the video message on churchofthehighlands/media

Man to Man

God did not design us to go through this life alone. Proverbs 27:17 says, "As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another". Jesus modeled this when he made himself a servant and walked in intentional relationships.
